PRESIDENT'S REPORT

As we all know I'm a man of few words so I'll try to keep this as brief as possible while still highlighting the year that was.

2022 was the first year we saw normal operations post COVID, while COVID-19 remains a concern we were permitted to return to normal operations at the Community Hall, South East Community Resource Centre and Jack Setters Arena. This leaves us in a position to refocus attention to the Community Hall Renovation and Expansion Project. Expect to see more about that at the next few General Meetings. Reminder this month the meeting is on January 10, 2023.

We are encouraged by the year to come and some projects in our community worth mentioning, first of which is a minor redevelopment of George Moss Park. This project is led by the Youth Centres of Calgary and the Calgary Parks Foundation who will be conducting community engagement in the next 3-6 weeks with a view to come to a final plan and construction in the spring/summer of 2023, I'll make sure everyone knows when they intend to present. Another exciting presentation we will see at our February general meeting is a presentation from the folks at Green Line cover the portion of the track from where it crosses the Bow River to the North of us all the way to the South Hill Station, I encourage everyone who is interested to come out to that meeting.

As far as advertising meetings go, expect that in the future we will become more proactive on our website and social media going forward with reminders of meetings going out in the week prior to the meeting.

Before I close I would like to acknowledge some folks, first Mr. Jeremy Chivers, for those who don't know Jeremy operates the adopt a rink program at George Moss Park and has done so for some time he not only makes the ice every winter but he maintains it all winter, Jeremy deserves a hats off for his work. Another group I would like to acknowledge is the board of directors who are all volunteers, this last year has seen a lot of hard work from all involved in every facet of the associations work, from development, to finance, governance and facilities management. It is sometimes difficult to remind outside organizations that we are in fact volunteers and that some things will take time.

In closing we had a busy year last year and our reward for that is an even busier year this year. I look forward to seeing you all at the meetings this year.

John C.W. McDonald, CD
President

A MESSAGE FROM THE MOCA VICE PRESIDENT

As we welcome 2023, the MOCA Board would like to share its appreciation with the Jack Setters Arena, the City of Calgary Police, and the SE CCRC staff in making a difference to our community members during the 2022 Christmas Season in addition to the community businesses who help make a difference with each of one of these events.

Santa Skate: Jack Setters hosted its annual Santa Skate on December 18th. A very cheerful Santa, a natural on skates, skated with the residents who joined him on the ice. Cereal boxes were collected for the SE CCRC Christmas Hampers. With a contribution from the Glenmore Inn and Scotiabank, hot chocolate, cookies and treats were served and enjoyed by all.

Lego Contest: Also present at the Santa Skate was Janaya, MOCA's administrative assistant, to generate interest in the MOCA Annual Lego Contest on February 4th. Canceled the past two years, we are anticipating the participation of many Lego enthusiasts in the contest. Refer to page 1 for contest details, as well as the entry form at the end of this newsletter

City of Calgary Police Youth Connection Dance:

The City of Calgary Police hosted a dance event for the grades 7 to 9 students from Sherwood School as part of their Youth Community Engagement Program. MOCA donated the use of the hall with MOCA Directors in attendance. The dance was an extreme success with a DJ, pizza and beverages, and prizes for all 120 students in attendance - all thanks to the City of Calgary Police. Truly a very memorable event for the participating students especially for those who also visited the City of Calgary Police Command Unit which remained stationed outside the hall throughout the evening.

Christmas Hampers: The SE CCRC'S Christmas Craft Sale was once again very successful. The proceeds from the sale of items knitted by the Knit & Knatter Group, who meet weekly at SE CCRC to knit mittens, toques, etc., went towards the Christmas Hampers coordinated annually by the SE CCRC and St Bernadette Parish. The 100+ Christmas hampers were made possible through very generous donations from CP (cheque of $3000), the Anglican Church (cheque of $1400), an individual donation of $500 and with the SE CCRC preparing 25 hampers and the Ogden House preparing 15. In addition to Freshco providing fresh food at cost, the Tree of Light donated 50 bags of food staples for the hampers. To allow clients receiving the Christmas Hampers to have some means of purchasing Christmas gifts, the $2500 in gift cards from Calvert Home Mortgage Corporation were distributed with the hampers.

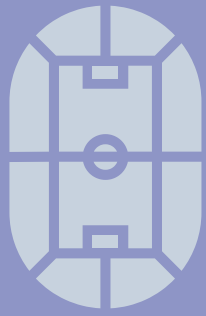

We remain very proud of the Community Association services and businesses that made the end of 2022 a very special time for so many of our community residents. In closing, and on behalf of the MOCA Board, I would like to wish each and every one of you a very healthy and prosperous life in 2023.

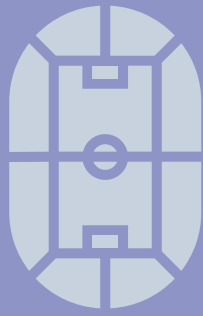

Looking forward to seeing you in 2023. The MOCA January General Meeting is scheduled for Tuesday, January 10th at 7 pm at the MOCA Hall. At the February 7th General Meeting, the Green Line Team will be present to share details about what will be happening in our community related to the Green Line

Happy New Year,

Lorraine Robinson

FACTS ABOUT ALBERTA

All facts were found in Top 150 Unusual Things to See In Alberta by Debbie Olson

Booming Ice Chasm

Did you know the largest ice cave in North America is in Alberta? Booming Ice Chasm, near Crowsnest Pass, was first spotted on Google Earth in 2005. It's so large that it contains both a frozen waterfall and a frozen lake!

<https://www.irishmirror.ie/news/weird-news/inside-booming-ice-chasm-subterranean-6883634>

Herman the Merman

There's a mysterious merman on display at the Banff Trading Poster. It's origins are currently unknown, some believing it was crafted by the proprietor of the Banff Trading Poster, while others believe it was caught by a fisherman.

Alberta's Diefenbunker

In the 1950's and 60's, the Government of Canada built nuclear fallout shelters across the country in case there was a nuclear attack. They called them "Diefenbunkers" because Prime Minister John Diefenbaker authorized the construction

Alberta's Diefenbunker was located at Canadian forces Base Penhold and had two nuclear fallout shelters. The bunkers were decommissioned in 1994, sold privately in 1999, and was demolished in 2001.

Millican Ogden History

Snippets From a Senior - Part 4

Once again, the Millican Ogden Heritage Group continues an article written by Keith Moss, a grandson of George Moss, after whom George Moss Park is named. George and his wife, Edith, settled in Ogden in 1913 when he obtained a job as a machinist at the C.P.R. Ogden Shops. George was a member of St. Augustine's Church, was the secretary of the Ogden Community Association for 32 years, and was a Charter Member of the Ogden Legion. The park is named after him for his dedicated service to his community.

The late 1940's was another memorable time for the Moss family on 22nd Street. In 1948, my brother Wayne was born. It always amazes me that 8 year' difference in age could make such a difference to a young man's growth and development in the Ogden Community.

About the same time that my brother blessed our home, we received a telephone. We didn't have one before then. Before the late 40's, if we wanted to make a phone call, family members had to go to my Grandma and Granddad Moss' home. It was only a quick walk through an empty lot to reach their back gate. (They lived on 22A Street.) The only problem was my Grandparents had 23 other people on a party line so it took some time to make a call! When we got our first phone installed, we had to share the line with one other party but we didn't wait too long until we had our own private line.

A TV was the other electronic gadget that was missing in our home. Like many families in Ogden we didn't get a TV until the mid to late 1950's. Prior to that, our family spent time being entertained by the radio. Every morning my Mom would do here housework while listening to the "Happy Gang" a program out of Toronto. In the afternoon there was a full complement of Soap Operas.

In the evening, members of my family and me would listen to a variety of programs. My Dad and I loved to listen to "The Green Hornet", the "Cisco Kid", the "Lone Ranger", and a mystery called "The Shadow Knows." Everyone would enjoy the comedies, like Edgar Bergen and Charlie McCarthy, Ozzie and Harriet, and Wayne and Schuster. The Calgary Herald always had a section of colored comics in each Saturday's edition and at 9am on Sunday mornings, my sister and I would sit near the radio with the comic section in hand and listen for an hour while a man read the comics over the air. He had a knack of making them come to life thus stimulating our imaginations.

Our house was very comfortable with basic necessities. The one appliance that I would say was unique by today's standards was a 4.5 to 5 cubic foot Servel fridge that ran on natural gas. We initially had no deep freeze.

Because storage of fresh fruit and meats was limited at home and because until the early 50's we had no car, we, like many Ogden citizens, shopped locally. There were only two stores in our community. Both of them sat across from each other on 26 Street and 76th Avenue. Cables, owned by Len Cable and his father was a cream colored building with living quarters in the back and sat on the north west corner of 26 Street and 76 Avenue and the other store, a blue grey building was owned by the Featherstone family and sat on the south-west corner across from Cable's store. Mr. Cable and Len had a brown draught horse which they tethered on the open land behind the store. (There were only two residences between their store and the corner of George Moss Park.) Phones were limited so most people would walk to the store. If the groceries were too much to carry back home, the Cables would deliver them every Saturday afternoon using the horse and covered wagon that looked much like a stage coach.

Keep an eye out next month for the final installment of Keith's article.

A MESSAGE FROM OUR MLA, TANYA FIR

Dear Constituents,

Affordability is a challenge facing many Albertans right now. That is why we are delivering timely and meaningful support. The measures announced so far include, but are not limited to, extending the fuel tax cut, taking action on utilities, including expanding the electricity rebate to a total of up to $500, reindexing benefits like AISH, PDD, and Income Support, as well as the Alberta Seniors Benefit and the Alberta Child and Family Benefit, providing targeted payments for kids under 18, seniors 65 and over, and vulnerable Albertans with household incomes below $180,000, and providing additional support for low-income transit programs. Our government is in a position to provide this suite of financial help because of our balanced budget and strong fiscal position.

The Deerfoot Trail expansion project, which is expected to begin in 2023, will ease congestion on Alberta's busiest highway. It will include improving the Bow Bottom Trail and Anderson Road, Southland Drive and Glenmore Trail interchanges; building seven new bridge structures at Anderson Road and Bow Bottom Trail, Bow River, Southland Drive and Glenmore Trail; and, adding more lanes to Deerfoot Trail along the highway and through the Anderson Road/Bow Bottom Trail and Glenmore Trail interchanges.

Patients receiving cancer care in Calgary are another step closer to receiving that care in a world-class medical centre. The new Calgary Cancer Centre will increase care capacity by consolidating and expanding existing services to support integrated and comprehensive cancer care. The hospital will serve as a hub for medical education and research activities, providing jobs and educational opportunities for Albertans. AHS is preparing the hospital for clinical services, including installing equipment and furniture, and training staff. Once operational, the 186,000 square metre facility will have 160 inpatient beds, 100 patient exam rooms and will provide a wide range of health-care services for patients.

Wishing you a healthy and prosperous 2023, filled with blessings.
