OGDEN "Better Not Tell You Now" ARTWORK PROJECT

A temporary, engagement-focused public art project by Cassie Suche. Commissioned by the City of Calgary. Nestled between CP rail and The Bow, Millican Ogden is somewhat disconnected from the rest of Calgary. A shared sense of separateness among its residents has helped establish it as a tight-knit and exceptionally community-oriented place. The people of Millican Ogden are neighbourly and engaged, and have developed a strong collective support system in the neighbourhood.

Currently, the neighbourhood is undergoing a number of changes. The City is preparing for construction of the green line, which will strengthen the connection between Millican Ogden and the rest of Calgary. The increasing development is beginning to change the area in noticeable ways.

Residents have mixed feelings about these changes. There is a back-and-forth dialogue taking place about maintaining Millican Ogden's If You Know You Know quality, and embracing some of the benefits that could come with a stronger connection to the rest of Calgary.

The artist chose to use Magic 8balls to embody this idea. The toys reference indecision and future-telling with an element of playfulness that mirrors the community's spirit. Using resident's responses to open-ended prompts about Millican Ogden, a project with two connected pieces was created.

The first piece of the work is a set of three interactive magic 8balls which will be located at the Millican Ogden community centre. Each magic 8ball contains a series of messages and predictions from the residents. The second component of the work displays these messages again on aluminum signs mounted on 11 poles throughout the neighbourhood just off Ogden Road. The triangular signs continue the motif of the 8ball, organized into sets of four as impromptu poetry.

A walk-about tour of the signs will take place on Saturday, November 4th at 1 pm. Interested participants are invited to meet in front of the SE CCRC building located at 2734 - 76 Ave SE. The tour will end with a reception at the SE CCRC and the presentation of the three accompanying interactive magic 8balls.

Titled Better Not Tell You Now (a traditional, ambiguous 8ball response), the project highlights the notion that this mixed apprehension is fueled by a deep and resounding love of the neighbourhood. It aims to encapsulate some of Millican Ogden's character while expressing the community's collective inquiry for what comes next.

The panels will be painted on City-owned poles indicated by the green circles. The direction of the on text is indicated by the arrows.
